OH ASK ME NOT TO LOVE AGAIN

A NEW BALLAD

Written by a Gentleman of New York

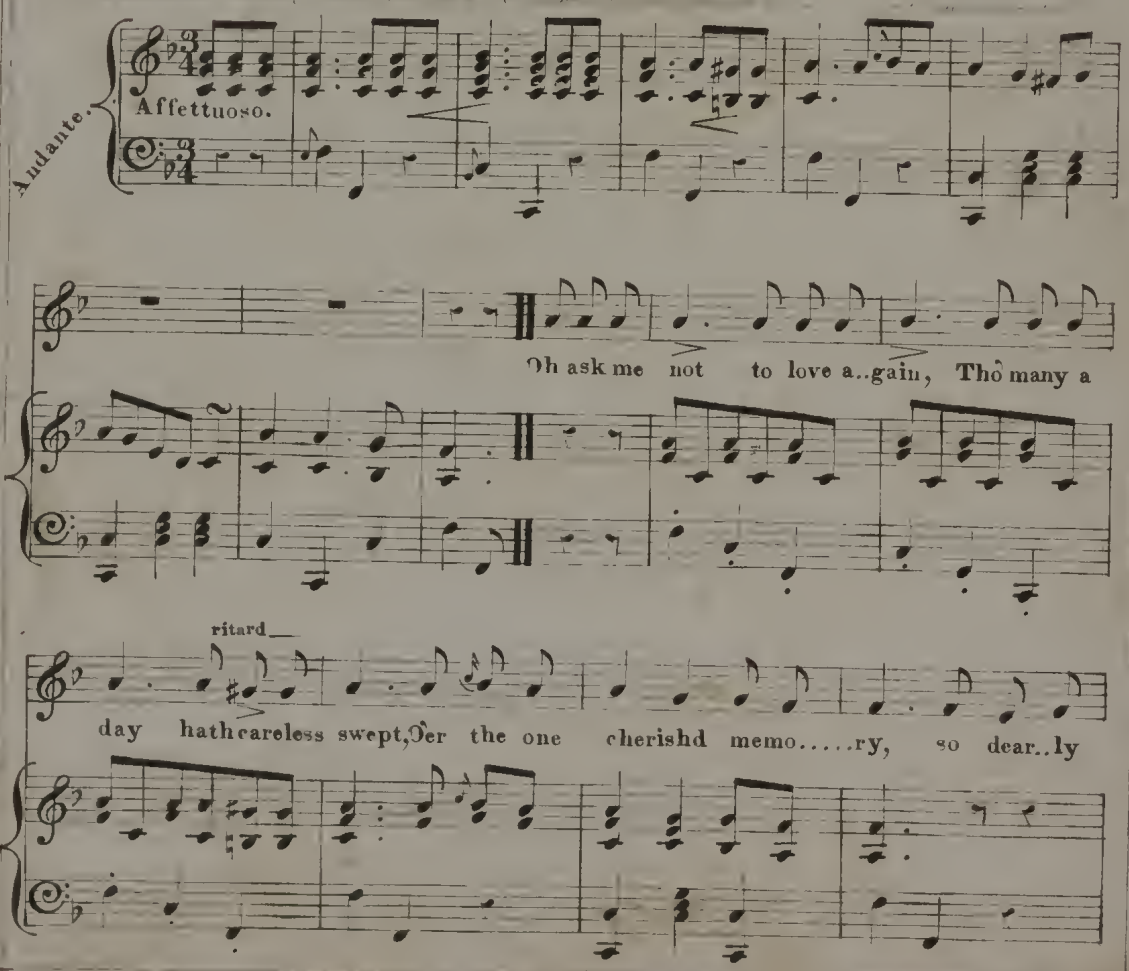
Arranged for the

Piano Forte

As Sung with great success, by

Mrs CROXALL.

Philad.a OSBOURN'S MUSIC SALOON, No. 112 So. 3d St.



Andante.
Affettuoso.
Oh ask me not to love a..gain, Tho' many a ritard
day hath careless swept, O'er the one cherishd memo.....ry, so dear..ly

Cal_an_do in my bo..som kept; the smother'd sigh_the hidden tear, Which seem an Slen_tan_do ear...nest of my pain, Are to my soul than smile more dear, Oh ask me not, Oh ask me not to love again.

Can I recall those well lov'd hours,
The careless stroll the offer'd flowers,
The whisper'd vows by moonlight breathed,
In that too well remember'd bower;
Go bid the wither'd wreath revive,
The dying bird its flight regain,
But leave me to my own own tears,
I cannot cannot love again.